

2010 GEORGIA TECH
MODEL UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE
Sponsored by the Sam Nunn School of International Affairs
OCTOBER 18-19 2010

LAPTOP POLICY

GTMUN 2010 will not permit the use of laptop computers during the conference. This is done to ensure a general fairness among all conference participants. Delegates found using such devices will surrender their devices to conference staff. Conference staff will give confiscated devices to teacher advisors. Working papers are required to be submitted electronically via the GTMUN web interface. A computer lab will be made available for students for these purposes.

The staff of GTMUN is not responsible for laptops brought to the conference, including any loss or damaged incurred.

Laura O'Donnell
Conference Director

Emilio Salazar
Director General

Kelsie Riemenschneider
Secretary General

Special thanks to:

Kirk Bowman, PhD
Faculty Advisor

William J. Long, PhD
Chair,
Sam Nunn School of International Affairs